Year's Movement Tapering Off With Total Of 475 Rail

Celery, Corn, Mixed Vegetables And Potatoes Hauled Volume Up

With the season giving every indication of nearing its end, harvest hands and contractors are preparing to go north for the summer season's work. Celery, corn and mixed cars still hold hopes for continued movement from this area until the first part of June.

With the generally accepted estimate that as much produce moves from the Glades by truck as by car, the total for the season up to now is approximately 18,554 cars, or equivalent.

Prices generally have not been equalized for the year's movement equals last year's, the money received is generally 20% under last year's.

With the addition of Lake Harbor and the area to Clewiston to the above figures, it appears that the total of 1953 will be equalled or even exceeded.

The Unit consisting of seven planes, piloted by an observer, made a high and low level search in the northwestern portion of Lake Okechobee for the twin engine amphibian plane that went down in the lake several weeks ago with the loss of three lives.

Although the bodies of the three flyers were recovered several days after the accident no trace of the plane has ever been found, there being no eye witness and the widely separated location of the bodies leaving the search was unsuccessful.

Capt. W. E. Golden Commander of the local unit stated similar missions would be made for the experience in search and rescue work.

The Vinegar Bend Road, going south from the Bend to the Bolles Canal, along the north bank of the Bolles to Okeelanta, will be completed, according to reports from the County Commission.

The prospective county official is now on active duty with the Army as a major and is stationed at Alexandria, Va. CINEMATIC CHATTER

By Malcolm Miller

Hello everybody! In the language of the gaming tables, Jane Greer is what is known as a "natural." It was a natural beauty, a natural ability and a natural photographic quality which brought her to Hollywood and which enabled her to reach the top ranks in record time. Miss Greer never received dramatic instruction, never had a dancing lesson, never practiced singing and has never attempted consciously to change her personality. Everything she is or has been she owes to one thing, the fact that she utilized her natural assets to the fullest extent. It started when, as a student out of high school, she decided to take up vocalizing as a career. With no experience, and barely knowing the difference between a crescendo and a high C, she won a spot as featured singer with Elinor Madriguera's orchestra. Later she decided to model for a living. ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were stiff.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Mary, my wife, asked me as I was dunking a doughnut in my second cup of coffee, where I was heading for. Mary always likes to yakety at the breakfast table. My wife rather read the paper. "Dix to West Palm Beach with a load of new cars," I told her. "Pisa a student." "Student?" she asked. "Part of our driver-trainer program," I told her. "It's part of the duty of us professional truck drivers. This student is from the University of Florida. For several hundred miles he's going to drive. I'm going to observe him closely from the angles of attitude, foot-and-hand reaction time and many other functions. That's the way they break in all of us."

Mary was determined to talk. "A college man, eh?" she asked.

"Yup," I said, laying down my paper. "Matter of fact, the colleges and universities are paying more and more attention to the trucking industry. Only yesterday, Mr. Charles Gertner, general manager of the Florida Trucking Association, and Major A. D. Tomlinson, president of the Florida Trucking Association, told me that the University of Florida is thinking of starting courses in highway transportation."

"I think that's wonderful," Mary said.

"So does the Florida Trucking Association," I said. "Matter of fact, Mr. Gertner said the association has already raised $4,000 for scholarships. That's what I like about our association. It's really on the ball."

"It's doing a wonderful job," Mary agreed. "So long—teacher."

Vinegar Bend Road

These two roads, according to reports are the only farm-to-market roads in the Glades, and both roads serve the general public. Both are of great benefit to a great many taxpayers of the Glades.

The Vinegar Bend Road opens up by hard road several thousands acres of land, will serve to increase the taxable value to a considerable extent, and is of general utility to the whole community.

We humbly suggest to the County Commission that the criteria of "benefits" surrounding this road be utilized in planning other roads for the Glades.

Churches of Christ, Scientist
As man thinks of the things of God he naturally turns from mortality to immortality. This is the theme of Christ Science services next Sunday when the subject is "MORTALS AND IMMORTALS."

A verse from Paul's epistle to the Romans (8:6) furnishes the Golden Text: "To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

Bible passages to be read include: "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee, because he trusteth in thee" (Isiah 26:3).

Included in references from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is this: "To be immortal, we must forsake the mortal sense of things, turn from the lie of false belief to Truth, and gather the facts of being from the divine Mind" (p. 370).

REFINEMENT

Refinement is the lifting of one's self upwards from the merely sensual, the effort of the soul to eternalize the common wants and uses of life.

—Henry Ward Beecher.
Too great refinement is false delicacy, and true delicacy is solid refinement.

—La Rochefoucauld.
The necessity for uplifting the race is faster to the fact that Mind can do it; for Mind can impart purity instead of impurity, strength instead of weakness, and health instead of disease. —Mary Baker Eddy. Refinement creates beauty everywhere. —William Hazlitt.

Whenever education and refinement grow away from the common people, they are growing towards selfishness, which is the monster evil of the world.

—Henry Ward Beecher.
True delicacy, as true generosity, is more wounded by an act of offense from itself than to itself. —Lord Greville.

"SUNDAY MEDITATION OF THE UPPER ROOM"

Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed; for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. Joshua 1:9. Read Joshua 1:1-9 or Hebrews 11:32-40.

With Moses, the Israelites started out from Egypt for the Promised Land. The Red Sea, Mt. Sinai, the reports of the twelve spies were some highlights of the journey. Finally, only the River Jordan lay between them and the land of milk and honey. But they did not go over and possess it, for their fears were more than their trust in God.

In all these events, Caleb was one of few witnesses who had stood faithfully with God. Moses said to Caleb, "Thou hast wholly followed the Lord my God. God was with him. For his faithfulness he received his promised land."

Do we not long to lay claim to the possessions promised to us—salvation through Christ, the promise of the kingdom of spiritual riches? By our faith and by our faithfulness, and in the strength and fearlessness which Christ gives us, we can go forth this day to claim our promised possessions.

PRAYER

O Lord, too long I have been satisfied with the second best. My inheritance purchased by Jesus has not been claimed. Help me to know the length; breadth, height, and depth of Thy love and claim all that is mine. In Christ's name, Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"I will be our refuge and strength. . . Therefore will not we fear." J. E. Poppins, Publisher, Australia.

LESSON TITLE — "On The Coming Of The Lord"

SCRIPTURE — I Thessalonians 1:1; 5:1-11, 14-23

Introduction:

Today we leave the life of Paul to study selected passages of the letters he sent to the Churches. The Thessalonian letters were his earliest.

I. The Day of the Lord — I Thess. 5:1-11, 1-3.

The early Christians looked for the return of the Lord in their lifetime. The Thessalonians were no exception. However, some had stopped work and ceased to make any plans for the future. Paul tells them that no man knows when the Lord will return.

II. Be Ready for the Return — 5:4-11.

Even tho' no man knows the hour, they are to be ready at all times.

III. The Marks Of A Christian — 5:14-23.

Here is how to be ready, not by not working, etc., but by doing that which will be pleasing to the Lord at his appearing.

THIS WEEK'S SERMONETTE

Jesus' Formula For Dealing With Irritations

By Julian and Ruth Griggs

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone." — Matthew 18:15a

Difficulties in getting along with each other are not unusual in human relations even among Christians. Problems are to be expected, but not to be feared, nor escaped, nor worried over . . . just expected.

For example, there is the wife who cannot stand the way her husband tinkers around in his shop every evening. There is her husband who cannot bear to come home to a helter-skelter house. How can this frustrated couple become un-frazzled? Shall they throw up an ice wall between themselves? Shall they talk to others about the "problem"? Or sulky? Or ignore the hurt?

Jesus has a method in the above scripture. How might it operate here? Suppose the wife sees her husband start out to the shop after supper. If she holds in her anger much longer, she will be unable to keep from shouting madly, "Why do you have to work out in that dumb shop every evening? You never spend an evening with me? Can't we ever go out together anymore? Don't you love me?" If she lets her frustration out like this her husband will probably reply angrily, and a big battle will begin.

How would Jesus' method work? Before the wife gets to the point where she's so angry she can't control what she says, she should recognize her irritation, search herself for its roots, and then immediately say to her husband in a warm, searching tone, "It really irritates me that you spend so much evening out in the shop away from me. I look forward to your coming home, and I often want to do something together in the evening. Night after night I am disappointed when you go to the shop."

The husband may then feel an opening to explain his reasons and feelings about it. Maybe he's making a surprise for her, or he may reveal that he dreams going out evening and seeks refuge in the shop, or he may feel that he must work evening in the shop to increase their income. He might ask, "Do you feel that more income is less valuable than our having our evening together?"

Maybe he'll reveal an irritation himself. "Well, I'm annoyed by the way the house looks when I come in. Everything looks sorta out of place. I think maybe I go out to the shop to escape."

When deep feelings like these are brought out to each other in a calm, loving atmosphere, there is the possibility of working out a solution. Perhaps they will find a compromise which will be satisfactory to both . . . like the little boy who was refused more bread until he had eaten the tomato on his plate. He was sure he wouldn't eat the tomato, and his Mother was sure he wouldn't get more bread until he did eat it. How the tension eased when Mother suggested a tomato sandwich which he accepted. The needs of both were met, and each did more than he expected to do at first.

There is healing in letting a person who is hurting you know how you feel if you do it before frustration builds up mountain-high and erupts like a volcano. Sometimes it is easier to go on accepting a hurt after you have let a person know that what he is doing is hurting you.

There is something honorable and clean about Jesus' method of going directly to a person and talking over an irritation. Perhaps a good motto to hang up in our hearts would be, "I will say nothing behind a person's back which I am not willing to talk over directly with him face to face."

May God help us to be more loving, sensitive, clean, and Christian in meeting our human relations difficulties.

Have Love. Not love alone for one, But man as man thy brother calls. And scatter like the circling sun Thy charities on all.

Thus grave these lessons on thy soul— Faith, Hope, Love—and thou shalt find Strength when life's surges roll Light when thou else wert blind.

Johann Friedrich von Schiller, 1759-1805. The Reminder-Reflector, Hollywood, Calif.

"The Bible means to me that there is a God, that He has purposes for men, and that each of us has the task to find and improve himself in the stream of divine purpose."

John Foster Dulles.

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
The Bible
And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low; and the Lord alone shall be exalted in that day. —(Isaiah III, 17.)
When the present moment and hour may be the last for any one of us, and this day any individual's Day of Judgment, why should we exalt ourselves or anyone else of this earth? Only the true humble, forgiven of the Lord and living in Him, can count the treasure secure, today or forever.

No doubt about it... Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

This year—for the 12th straight production year

—truck users are buying more Chevrolet trucks than any other make. That couldn't be true unless Chevrolet trucks offered more of what you want.Already, 1953's official sales figures tell a remarkable story of clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. But, this is not surprising, for truck users everywhere are discovering how far ahead of all other Chevrolet trucks really are.They are discovering things like the tremendous new power in advanced Load-master engines in heavy-duty models . . . the remarkable gasoline economy . . . the extra ruggedness and strength of heavier, more rigid frame construction.
And, in addition to all these advantages, the Chevrolet line lists for less than any other trucks of comparable size and capacity. So, before you buy any truck, stop in and see us.A public service program

SPECIAL BREATHING

When the new self contained breathing apparatus was received one night's drill was devoted to familiarizing each member of the department, paid and volunteer, with the procedure for installing, testing and working in it. The chief recalled several fires in past years in which property damage could have been materially reduced, had he been equipped with this mask, as well as the possibility of having saved lives, as in the case where two men were killed by poisonous gas in a packing house well in Pahokee.

In addition to this breathing apparatus for the firemen's use, the department also has two other pieces of equipment for use in reviving a victim of drowning or asphyxiation. One is the Respiator, bought by the volunteers and to be used in conjunction with artificial respiration. The other is the Resuscitator, which was loaned by Berry's Funeral Home, and which is automatic in action and requires no artificial respiration. All firemen on duty are trained in the use of both these machines.

NEGRO NEWSNEWS OF PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION

The Palm Beach County PTA Council met Saturday, May 9, with the Washington Elementary School PTA, Mrs. McGhee, pres., with twelve schools being represented.

Since this was the last meeting of the school term, a short skit was presented by the children on "Proper Foods for the Growing Child."

Miss Hazel St. Clair Principal gave a short narrative of the community survey on balanced meals in the home in that area. This was informative and a greater need was shown that more health education can be stressed by PTA program being observed also.

The final reports of PTA tag day were made, $136 was collected. Goals for 1953-1954 were read by the president, Mrs. Daisy Murrell. Each unit pledged its support for a bigger and better PTA.

PTA state president, Mrs. Elizabeth Epy presented PTA membership certificates to each school. Only five schools in the county do not have PTA units. The presidents both council and state said that next school that there would be one hundred percent affiliation of Parent-Teacher groups.

The membership goal for Florida is 10,000. Let Palm Beach County keep in the lead. We now have 1,000.

The first fall meeting will be held, Pleasant City School, West Palm Beach.

EVERGLADES VOCATIONAL HIGH SCHOOL NEWSN.F.A. News

The members of the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th grade — agricultural classes have been quite busy this week making plans to close out project records for the school year. Much interest is being shown on how much profit or loss each member has made on his Productive Prize Project. In solving these problems each boy acquainted himself with methods that can be applied in running any kind of business.

This coming Thursday will make the beginning of a tractor-handling and tractor-maintenance course. Each boy seems to look forward to the time when he can handle a tractor efficiently and economically on any employer's farm, which is our main future objective.

During a recent chapel program, Francis Sayall and Earle Williams, students of Everglades Vocational High School, were awarded a certificate of honor for participating in the Annual Essay Contest given by the T.B. Association.

There were five representatives present from the Palm Beach Chapter, Mrs. Marjorie Arton, Mrs. Ruth Shepherd, Mr. W. C. Taylor, Mrs. Daisy Murrell, and Mr. Emmett Roberts. They expressed their appreciation to these students for bringing honor to Palm Beach County.

Mr. W. C. Taylor made the presentation, and it was accepted by Eartha Williams. She expressed their gratitude and appreciation in receiving the awards. Each representative gave a short talk on how proud they were that the award came to Palm Beach County. The entire program was enjoyed by everyone. The mistress of ceremonies was Ida M. Jones.

The East Lake School PTA met Monday night at the school with Mrs. Paul Stokes presiding.

All committee chairmen made their reports for the year. A report of the County Council meeting was made by the delegate, Mrs. Lucy Baines. Two presentations were made to the principal, S. M. Murrell — A PTA banner for increase in membership among the elementary schools for membership of 100, and a certificate for state and national PTA membership was presented by council delegate, Mrs. Barnes.

The following officers were elected: pres. Mrs. Pauline Stokes; vice pres. Rev. E. Wright; sec'y, Miss Mildred Reed; treasurer, Mrs. Lucy Baines. Officers were installed by Mrs. Daisy Murrell, Palm Beach County PTA Council president.

It is the most brilliant Buick performer in fifty great years.

The first of these is an obvious truth that you learn at initial sight of this automobile's sweeping lines, its gracious styling, its stunning interior fashioning.

"Why I Left The Catholic Church"

Sparagna, a Roman Catholic priest and Franciscan monk for 20 years, preached before his conversion in all the major cities of Italy, addressing audiences of up to 35,000.

He holds the degrees of Doctor of Philosophy and Theology, and Doctor of Laws. In various Catholic schools he has taught Theology, Bible, Church History, Paleography and Elocution. He speaks seven languages.

As a chaplain in the Italian army during World War II, he was present at the battle of Stalingrad.

An ardent foe of Fascism and Communism, Sparagna first came into conflict with his religious superiors because of his persistent advocacy of religious freedom.

In 1948, he fled from his monastery to America, with the intention of preaching the simple gospel of the New Testament in a country where it would be allowed. He became a member of the church of Christ in 1950.

Since his conversion, he has suffered continued persecution by his former colleagues, and has been denied by many Americans the right of public expression on the subject of religion.

As an ex-priest, Mr. Sparagna cordially invites his former brethren of this area to be his special guests at these services, and to hear from his own lips the soul-searching reasons that led to this momentous transformation in his life and doctrine.

Now! Prompt Delivery of CREOSOTED POSTS & LUMBER

Good for a Lifetime

WE'RE SET UP . . .

to fill your orders promptly—whatever size or quantity of posts or lumber you may need—thanks to our continuous program of expansion and improvement in our creosoting plant at Ona. For example, we have recently built a quarter mile of railroad to aid in efficient handling of our stock. A new post peeler handles posts up to 18 feet long, and as much as 10 inches in diameter. Our fleet of specially designed trucks and trailers makes delivery easy throughout Florida.

LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES . . .

are yours at Florida Fence Post. Not only has service been improved, but costs have been kept constant, despite nationwide inflation, thanks to bulk purchases of creosote, and reduction of the labor required to make each fence post through use of modern machinery and production methods.

LUMBER, PILING AND POSTS

are on hand at all times. We retain a stock of more than 300,000 feet of lumber at all times, and we believe we are the only firm in Florida stocking creosoted lumber, piling and posts in large quantities. This stock makes it possible for us to fill orders promptly for the materials you may require to build cattle pens, bridges, seawalls, warehouses, etc.

GOOD FOR A LIFETIME . . .

Under actual tests, creosoted posts have lasted 30 years. How much longer they will last, nobody knows. They may last a lifetime. At any rate, no one has ever questioned our slogan "Good for a Lifetime," and don't expect them to. Posts put in use when we first began our operation five years ago are still in A-1 condition.

Creosoted Posts will not split or break . . . staples will not pull . . . No culls . . . every post is perfect . . . They're easier to handle, more uniform in size than any other posts you can use . . . You'll save on fence-building costs enough to more than offset the slight extra cost of these creosoted posts—good for a lifetime.
